

Academic Vocabulary Fourth Grade

Language Arts
anecdote audience author's purpose cause / effect character traits clarify compare/contrast conclusion elaborate	encyclopedia figurative language fluency (reading) imagery inference journal legend log mystery	myth oral tradition outline persuasive writing prompt proofread research simple predicate simple subject	tall tale text features text structure theme thesaurus transitional words verb tense voice

Math
angle (acute, right, obtuse) array base (3-dimensional figure) Celsius combination (probability) conversion	decimal value dividend divisible division divisor elapsed time hundredths improper fraction	intersecting lines mass million mixed number parallel perpendicular probability proper fraction quadrilateral	quotient rectangular pyramid reflection remainder ray rotation tenths transformation translation

Science
adaptation buoyant capacity components conclusion constant data density	deposition dissolving erosion flow fossil hypotheses infer investigate	learned characteristics map metamorphosis model reflection reliability research rotation	sequence symmetry table theory translation wind

Social Studies
annexation bill of rights civil war colony constitution county declaration of independence distribution	division of labor drought empresario executive exploration geographic data grievance income industrial	innovation judicial legislative location mission plateau political party purchase	region republic revolution secession three branches treaty