

Academic Vocabulary
High School Social Studies

9th-World Geography
Alluvial/fans/soils animism assimilation atmosphere biosphere cottage industry cultural convergence/divergence	desalinization economy of scale formal/perceptual/functional regions free trade zone fundamentalism hinterland hydrosphere	indigenous lithosphere mandates physical features plague population pyramid push/pull factors	rift valley spatial diffusion subsistence agriculture tectonic forces totalitarianism watershed Zionism
10th-World History
anthropologists archaeologists architectural engineering artifacts astronomy capitalism civilization colonialism communism	crusade empire enlightenment ethnic cleansing feudalism genocide Holocaust imperialism	insurrection law code manorialism mathematical and scientific discoveries medieval nationalism Nazism/Fascism	Neolithic Paleolithic parliamentary system reformation regime renaissance secularism socialism
11th-U.S. History 1877to Present
Americanization armistice business cycle civil service reform commerce conservation containment depression/recession domino theory	embargo/quarantine escalation ethnocentrism homestead inflation/deflation infrastructure initiative isolationism labor union	liberalism mass consumption nativism philanthropy political machine populism progressivism prohibition	prosperity recall referendum reservation system segregation/desegregation stalemate tenement trust/anti-trust 12th - Economics
absolute and comparative advantage balance of trade business ethics business ordinance/regulation circular flow model	competition-pure/monopolistic corporation currency determinants employment rate exchange rate	fiscal full employment oligopoly/monopoly opportunity costs private property rights production-possibilities curve profit motive	proprietorship/partnership resource conservatism societal values stock and bond market trade barriers voluntary exchange 12th - Government
authoritarianism citizen movements classical republic enact laws government fostered competition improved consumer products	incorporation doctrine independent executive agency interest groups inviolable rights judicial activism judicial restraint	jurisdiction media natural law natural rights parliamentary system political philosophy public policy	racial integration regulatory commission revenue/expenditures role of committees social contract theory unitary system