Suzy Red has presented workshops for thousands of educators in her career. This session is appropriate for teachers and librarians.

Units for Award Winning Picture Books are NOW being created with integrated, cross-curriculum literature units for all of the following award-winning books! In addition to new titles, we are including units for our favorite science and math award winning picture books from the last 8 years. How do Kids' Wings activities for these books transform your classroom? They provide balance, problem solving, group activities, and inspiration by giving you essential Imaginative Activities and Testing Activities to use with authentic literature! Each activity is keyed into educational objectives to encourage students to develop intellectual skills and multiple intelligences to help them unwrap, develop, and share their gifts.

You will receive a bound professional guide filled with hundreds of pages of creative, active ideas--excellent for literary circles as well as for individual and whole class interaction and tutoring. The activities are perfect for extending and enriching your G/T curriculum.

This event qualifies as a 6 hr. GT update session.
