

2009-2010 Reading/Language Arts/Dyslexia Program
Other Service Offerings
Serving Region 10 Schools

These services are available to Region 10 districts as of 07/01/09.

Administrator Feedback for Literacy Program Implementation

This service assists administrators in identifying best practices in the classroom to improve literacy program implementation Tiers 1, 2, and 3.

Demonstration Lessons in Reading

Demonstration lessons, complete with a debriefing session, are available upon request for interested campuses. These lessons, presented by Region 10 consultants, are designed as powerful models of effective reading instruction covering guided reading, shared reading, and whole group instruction. Instructional leaders may request from a predetermined list of research-based lessons for impacting instruction.

Demonstration Lessons in Writing

Demonstration lessons, complete with a debriefing session, are available upon request for interested campuses. These lessons, presented by Region 10 consultants, are designed as powerful models of effective writing instruction covering pre-writing, drafting, revising, editing, and sharing. Instructional leaders may request from a predetermined list of research-based lessons for impacting instruction.

District Dyslexia Plan Consultation

Dyslexia State Law TEC §38.003, and State Board of Education Rule TAC §74.28 outline procedures for the identification, placement, and instruction of students with dyslexia. This service will help districts to understand the requirements for developing district procedures for dyslexia and/or assist districts in revising protocols that are already in place.

Intervention Plan Consultation

This service assists administrators, coaches, and teachers to improve their Tier 2 Intervention Instruction and identify critical needs to include: lesson planning, appropriate materials selection, and data-driven decision making.

Support for Literacy Coaches

This service provides assistance to literacy coaches in identifying ways to better support their teachers in Tiers 1, 2, and 3.

Customized Consultations in Language Arts and/or Dyslexia

Individual districts or campuses may request a personalized consultation in the area of English Language Arts & Reading, Dyslexia, or Library Services. Consultations might include tailored services, such as assessment of literacy-related needs, planning for future professional development, problem solving, explanation of state initiatives or mandates, or addressing other needs identified by the campus or district. Region 10 Consultants are eager to lend their expertise through the most useful approach possible.