

REGION 10 EDUCATION SERVICE CENTER

Communicating with Disengaged Parents

This session is designed to help educators build relationships with parents in diverse school communities. Participants will learn culturally responsive techniques for reaching out to disengaged parents. Participants will also enjoy presentations made by model parent involvement programs where the best of family engagement theory is being put into practice. Stacey Huffer of Stafford Middle School will share what her campus is doing to engage families during the school's first year in operation. Trish McMinn of the Texas PTA will discuss how cash strapped campuses can use their PTA membership to access free and low cost resources for parent involvement programming. Please register soon, as space is limited.
