

School Based Practice 101 for Occupational and Physical Therapists

Does it sound like everyone around you is speaking a foreign language, ARD, IEP, IDEA, OHI, OI, SI, AU, TEA, SDAA, LDAA, APE, AT, FAPE? Working with children in the school setting is a whole new world compared to a hospital or clinic setting. This training is intended for OTs and PTs who are new to the educational setting. It will include basic terminology, laws you need to know, roles of other education professionals, the difference between school-based and-clinic based therapy and more. The second day will include a more in-depth look at therapy interventions commonly used in the school setting. Let us help ease the transition from the clinic to the classroom.
