I, along with the entire T&L staff, look forward to learning how our innovative educational solutions can continue to serve your learning community.

Dr. Denise D. Beutel
Director, Teaching & Learning
It is our belief, that in order to support the needs of today’s student, R10 must deliver relevant and innovative professional learning that is grounded in research and reflects best practices.

PLM – PROFESSIONAL LEARNING MODEL

PURPOSE

There is a seismic shift happening throughout Region 10. Schools are transforming their teaching and learning practices to better address the learning needs of today’s student. It is our belief, that in order to support this necessary transformation, R10 must redesign how Professional Learning is delivered and model relevant, innovative approaches in areas of teaching, learning and leadership.

WHY?

The professional experiences we deliver must reflect today’s learning in order to develop the skills of today’s students for tomorrow’s workforce.

THE R10 MODEL

The redesign of the Professional Learning model is grounded in the beliefs:

- We are learning designers and facilitators.
- We guide teachers & leaders in the curation of their own learning.
- Learning at the highest level is achieved through experiences.

TARGET:

The aim of R10 is to shift towards a 70/20/10 model. The learning experiences offered should strive to be 70% EXPERIENTIAL; 20% SOCIAL; and 10% STRUCTURED.
